Rental Owners Association in Lane County is a member of the Oregon Rental Housing Association (ORHA), a professional statewide organization of those involved in the rental industry working together for mutual benefit.

RENTAL OWNERS ASSOCIATION in LANE COUNTY

ROA in Lane County is an organization of landlords who care about ethical, legal and profitable landlording practices. Through the Rental Owners Association, members share problems, solutions and ideas with other landlords locally, throughout Oregon and around the country.

ROA comprises over 1,200 landlords owning over 20,000 rental units in Eugene, Springfield and the State of Oregon.

Every ROA rental owner & property manager understands that proper care and maintenance of every rental unit is a valuable investment in their rental business.

By joining ROA, you will have an opportunity to market your business directly to a specific target market: hundreds of rental property managers and owners who have a need for your services.

INDUSTRY ASSOCIATE MEMBERSHIP BENEFITS

Marketing and Advertising:

- Your company will be listed in the ROA Business Directory in our monthly bulletin and on our website! This publication reaches over 1,200 landlords, property managers, Industry Associates, and more!
